The atten dance numbering about three hundred, repre senting the beauty and chivalry of Vicksbur Bovina, Smith's Station, Edwards, Raymon Brownsville, Big Black and the surroundin community, had nearly all assembled by ten o'clock when the delightful strains of Zottarili's string band, from Vicksburg, struck up the grand march which was responded to and in-dulged in by at least one hundred. The large one hundred and sixty foot building proving heard of the storm was traveling northeasteritself equal to the emergency—then followed dance after dance until broad open dayligh We were indeed glad to see our old friend, and popular citizen, John W. We like the name of "Empire county" fur-nished for Hinds by Maj Harper, of the Gazette. Hinds is the "Empire county" with its 45,000 people, 7,500 voters, 25 townships, 5 towns of 500 to 5,000 inhabitants each, and 100,000 acres in cotton yielding 45,000 bales, its banks, schools, Andy Matthews, white, who was in the Penitentiary for breaking in Martin's store here last winter, escaped from his guards on Ingleside plantation, Leftore county, April 1st. The Governor offers a reward for him and several others. Matthews is young and shrewd, lived about here three or four years but came from about Louisville, Ky., so said. Mr. V. D. Baker, saddle and barness maker

Mrs. H. H. Heard, of Raymond, was in town last Thursday, feeling the pulse of our people on the Sheriff question. Hanse, it's hard for madically with or behind him. Baker assect mediately with or behind him. Baker passed rapidly in and through the store, went out at a back door, jumped the lot fence and escaped. We learn that Gen. W. T. Two murder cases are for trial, in each of which a thousand dollars lawyer's fee is paid by the defendant. One of the cases is against Col. Patton, of Martin, charged with killing a negro, and Gen. W. T. Martin and an-other, counsel for defense. The other nurser Joseph E. Monro COPTAIL—James W. Anderson, D. G. Jeffers, F. M. Bufkin, ease charges a Mr. Cannon with killing Mr. Martin, of Port Gibson, both highly respectable citizens. Report came here Saturday that Cannon was found guilty, and effort was making for a new trial or to modify the verdict. Matthews In answer to your Terry correspondent, the tax assessment here is not yet complete. The values offered are very likely about same as before, as the railroad is delayed just now, and not yet near enough to affect property. This can be said, though, that land owners here are less inclined to sell since the railroad prospect has been presented to them. There ar sellers and more buyers as the road gets neare er more certain. This fact is realized by us David Dudley. while actual prices have changed but little my. I must tell another snake story. Two genlemen from here went to Cayuga on the same lay last week, and on the way each killed the ame snake dead, very dead, and left it on the oad. The first went along early in the mornng, and seeing a huge snake across the road, topped, hitched his horse, got several rails, s, rocks, &c., and beat and mashed said snake There was no head nor body to the reptile. and in an hour or two along came the other man, also one of our truthful and respectable business men. He found the aforesaid snake ple passing later in the day saw all the other igns, but no part nor parcel of anything like a snake. So it appears the snake must have re covered life and strength and crawled away.
